

Overview

This course provides participants an understanding of the role of a Duty Holder and the importance of safe usage and documentation. It highlights responsibilities related to owning a Building Maintenance Unit installed at your location.

This interactive course has been produced online for your convenience. Participants can learn at their own pace and obtain certification immediately upon successful completion.

RELEVANT TO

For all duty holders - facilities managers and operative supervisors of building maintenance units

CLASS SIZE

Individual learning

ONLINE COURSE LENGTH

45 minutes

QUALIFICATION

3 year certificate - refresher courses available if booked prior to expiry of current qualification

LOCATION

Online

Online Course Description

The participant will:

- Receive an introduction to the online training to relay the objectives and expectations of the course
- Obtain a solid understanding of the importance of safe installation, usage, inspections, maintenance and documentation
- Learn about the different roles and responsibilities of both Duty Holder and Operators
- Learn about the different components the BMU is composed of and their functionality
- Learn about the responsibilities of a Duty Holder for the operation of a BMU
- The participant will be able to learn about important regulations and legislations in the industry
- The participant will be granted access to a Toolbox, containing additional files with sample documentation

Available in multiple languages

Register for your course

<http://training.alimakgroup.com>